To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor within and for the County of Penobscot on the last Tuesday of October next.
Delinda A Boynton of Corinth in said County, respectfully represents that she was married to Daniel H Boynton on the seventeenth day of February 1866, and that since her marriage she has strictly observed all her marriage vows, but that said Daniel H unmindful of his duties in that respect, has for the last five years treated your libelant with extreme cruelty and neglect, failing wholly to supply her and their children with the necessaries of life and finally deserting her in the month of December, 1874 leaving her penniless with three children to support, and has not since supplied her with any of the necessaries of life, and that owing to his extremely dissipated habits, cruel treatment and neglect her life has been rendered miserable
She also alleges that she has borne to him three children Frederick R. aged nine years, Edith A aged six years, and George D aged four years and that said Daniel H. Boynton is not a suitable person to have the custody of said children.
Wherefore she prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between her and her said husband and that the custody of said children may be given to her. And your Libelant further alleges that though she has made diligent search for her said husband his residence is wholly unknown to her

He had been insane for several days previous it was thought from the effects of a sunstroke

Kennebec

The Kennebec Journal says that few residents of our city have any idea of the large number of persons who daily visit our State House many of whom are from other States and also from almost every portion of Maine. The number of visitors this summer has largely exceeded that of any year since the war and has averaged about fifty per day. Gen Hurd and his gentlemanly assistants are attentive to all visitors, and many are the compliments they receive for their polite attention

The Journal says that the Seminary College at Kent's Hill opens with 150 students and they still are coming. Dr Torsey is back (with improved health) at his old place

A party of Freemasons from Gloucester Mass while on a fishing excursion in 1860 threw overboard a bottle containing their names. Last week it was washed ashore at Rockport in this state

Oxford

Last Saturday Freeland Howe and wife of Norway met with a severe accident in the town of Woodstock. Riding through the town their horse broke through a bridge covered with poles which held the leg fast so that the horse could not rise. Mr and Mrs Howe were thrown out of the carriage and severely bruised. Mrs H was stunned so that her husband thought her killed for some minutes. Her face and her person were badly bruised. One bone of Mr. Howe's right hand was broken in two places and the other has one break and is otherwise bruised. The injuries were such that he was left in Woodstock. Mr and Mrs H were quite comfortable Monday morning

Washington

The Republican says that on Saturday afternoon of last week Capt Urban Bunker of schooner Nellie F while blasting rocks near his residence met with a most serious and painful accident. A charge of powder which he had inserted in the rock accidentally exploded while Capt B was at work which completely severed the hand from his left arm and otherwise bruised him

The Republican says that the blueberry canning establishment at Machias has closed. Large quantities of berries have been brought in since it closed with the expectation of finding a market for them but the pickers have been sadly disappointed

York

The Biddeford Star says that as B F Hamilton Esq was driving down Nason hill last Friday night about 11½ o clock his horses were seized by two men whose purpose Mr H demanded when one of them rushed toward him but received a blow from the whip when he retreated to the horses and his companion renewed the assault. Mr H struck the highwayman a severe blow with the whip and at the same time struck the horses, who plunged ahead running over the man at the bridle

The Star says that one day recently a woman at her home on a farm on the Hollis road near the Poor Farm in Biddeford sent her son aged about twelve years to drive some cows to pasture. When within sight of the house the mother noticed that the lad was standing still and finding that he paid no attention to her when she shouted to him, she went up to him and quickly perceived that he was held spellbound by a snake which was crouching in the path before the boy with his mouth open and tongue running out. The woman with great presence of mind speedily dispatched the snake with a stake. It was several hours before the boy recovered from the effects of the charming when found he was cold and apparently insensible

The Times says that on Wednesday night of last week some one burglariously entered Nathaniel Came's house in Buxton and stole about eighty dollars in money. Mr Came was away at the time but three men and two ladies were in the house. The money was kept in a trunk beneath the front stairs

State at Large

The Boston Herald says that between 10 and 11 o clock Saturday night a man named John George hailing from Maine was passing along Market street when he was approached by three men who sprang upon him by resorting to the old fashioned garroting method. He managed to release himself sufficiently to cry lustily for help and his assailants ran away. Fortunately for George the gang did not obtain anything, for the simple reason he had nothing about him to take but he states that that evening on going out he left $150 with his boarding mistress for safe keeping till he returned. The Democratic organ editorially pats the bolting leaders on the back for berating the Republican party, but the reporter evidently regards the "movement" as practically collapsed, as he has begun to treat it with ridicule.

How the hearts of spectators swelled with enthusiasm for John C Talbot's ardent "loyalty" as they gazed upon the model of that "BOSS."

No Safeguards against Democratic Rapacity.

There is a sort of grim humor in the effrontery with which Democratic speakers are just now citing and Democratic organs quoting in display type the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution as affording a bar to the payment of the enormous Southern claims already piling up in Congress. In the first place that amendment shuts out only the Confederate debt and claims for emancipated slaves; while the miscellaneous claims by Southern rebels, the bills already introduced for which are estimated to involve $500,000,000, are subject only to a majority vote of Congress. When it is considered that the whole occupancy of the South by our troops affords a basis for claims precisely similar to those already presented, the enormous aggregate may be vaguely appreciated, AND SUCH CLAIMS ARE ABSOLUTELY UNDER CONTROL OF A MAJORITY VOTE OF CONGRESS.

A simple rule of the Committee on War Claims excluding the demands for compensation by those who were disloyal, has been the only bar hitherto, and among the first acts of the Democratic Committee was a repeal of this rule, thus opening the door to claims of untold millions. These claims have been introduced by Southern members and it is a significant fact that no one of them, even when closely questioned, has dared to peril his local support by denying that it is intended to press them to payment.

The Fourteenth Amendment fails to afford any protection against these gigantic raids, and it requires a marvellous degree of coolness on the part of the Democrats for them to come before the people and declare that in case of their success the National Treasury would find its only protection against the designs of the ex Confederates, in a Constitutional Amendment which they have denounced as having been "thrust down their throats at the point of the bayonet."

But with complete Democratic ascendency would that Amendment prove a safeguard even against the rebel debt and claims for emancipated slaves, the schedules of which have been carefully collected and prepared for some contingency? Let us see. The Democrats have vigorously denied the validity and binding force of the Amendments referred to. Suppose a bill passed by a Democratic House and Democratic Senate, and approved by a Democratic President to issue United States bonds or certificates in payment for emancipated slaves. Only the Supreme Court could interpose to restrain their issue. How long would the Democratic party in full power permit this obstacle to check them? The Supreme Court may be swamped by wholesale enlargement of its membership, giving the Democratic President the appointment of enough new Judges to control its action. They would even plead in justification their old complaint that the Supreme Court was enlarged by the Republicans in behalf of the legal tender act and with that Court in their control the Amendments could be whistled down the wind.

That this is no stretch of fancy, but that the scheme is already understood at the South is shown by such significant statements as the following from a Southern man printed in the Philadelphia Press:

"Let me say to you my dear friend, that if Tilden and Hendricks are elected the Secessionists will own them and will control the Government. We will have no peace for a century to come. THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES WILL BE ENLARGED TO MAKE A MAJORITY OF DEMOCRATS ON THE BENCH, WHO WILL DECLARE THE FOURTEENTH AND OTHER AMENDMENTS NO PART OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. Many of our former slave-owners believe that if the Democrats can get possession of the Government that such owners will be paid for their slaves. Jefferson Davis in that case, will be pensioned within the next three years, and the family of every Confederate general who fell during the rebellion will be pensioned on the Government. As things now stand with us it is impossible for men loyal to the Government to be elected to Congress from the South."

HOW TILDEN BLED THE UNION PACIFIC.

Mr Tilden's troubles are accumulating, and his reform pretensions have just received another heavy blow. Hon John A Kasson, in his speech at Calais, said there had come to him a copy of a receipt about which Mr Tilden will probably hear much more before November. It acknowledges the payment to him of a large sum of money by the Union Pacific Railroad Company at a time when it was obliged to escape from the hands of blackmailing judges in New York by obtaining an act authorizing the removal of its offices to Boston. The question will be asked us to what services Mr Tilden tendered, or what influence he had over those Ring Judges to warrant the payment to him of so many thousand dollars. The copy of the receipt was obtained on good authority, and it can be verified or disproved by any member of the Company who has access to its papers. The receipt is as follows:

"Union Pacific Railroad Company
To Samuel J Tilden, Dr
For professional services during the year 1867, as per memorandum $5,000, in 1868 $1,500, in 1869, $16,000, in 1870, $2,500. Total, $25,000

Received payment in full as against all directors and other parties involved or connected with the litigation up to January 1, 1871. S J TILDEN."

There are some tidy little items of income for Mr Tilden to explain.

ANOTHER DEMOCRAT CONVINCED.

In a speech at Readfield on Saturday Dudley W Moore, Esq, of Virginia, son of Hon Wyman B S Moore of Maine, and a life-long Democrat, told his hearers that after long observation and careful inquiry, he had become satisfied that justice to the colored man and peace and prosperity to the South, would best be secured by continuing the Republicans in power in the nation. He—an old Democrat—was led to this conclusion after having entertained the opposite view, by the stern logic of events. The fact that after Republican successes in the Union, evil-minded whites at the South were more careful to regard the rights of the colored men and more inclined to yield to the counsels of wisdom, while after Democratic successes in the Union, the evil-minded seemed to be emboldened—brought home to him the conviction that patriotism and justice alike demand the success of the Republican party.

The Portland Press says: "Reports from Penobscot county indicate that that old Republican stronghold is preparing for one of its old-time majorities. The meetings held in Bangor, Oldtown, Orono, Hampden and many other towns have been very enthusiastic."

Our friends elsewhere may rely on a rousing report from Old Penobscot.

A gentleman who had previously sympathized with the Oak movement said to us last evening: "That meeting at City Hall added at least fifty votes to Mr. Powers' support in this city, and I shall carry one of them, although I had not intended to vote for him. I find many others who do not like the style or leadership of the "reform" movement in this city."

AMERICANS ABHOR A LIE.
And They will not elect a Perjurer their President.

A fine "reformer" is this same Samuel J. Tilden? Does anybody now doubt that he is one of the most 'stupendous frauds' of the age?—Rochester Democrat

Perjury is the ugly offense that is now charged against Mr. Tilden, but then the proof isn't very good, being only the affidavits of one Samuel J Tilden.—Milwaukee Sentenel

The Democratic papers have been disposed to treat the charge lightly. They have tried to make fun of it. But it is not a funny affair. They will find it serious when a man swears that his income is only $7,118 and another affidavit swears that he received $20,000 the same year in a single counsel fee against one railroad.—Troy Whig

It is perfectly plain that if what Tilden swears to in 1876 is true, the oath he made in 1862 was false and perjured. That is all there is of it. Gov Tilden was not compelled to make these conflicting oaths. It was his free act and deed, and we fail to see that in calling public attention to the matter he is being abused or "vilified."—Hartford Post.

We presume there is not a single intelligent Democrat who will doubt upon this income statement that Tilden perjured himself to defraud the Government of a large sum in this tax. This was a war tax, and Tilden's sympathies were with the secessionists, and his perjuries were in line with his sympathies, but does this mitigate the crime?—Cincinnati Gazette

Does the World really acknowledge that "it is well known to the business men of New York" * * * "that Gov Tilden is a perjurer." It directly says so and at the same time attempts to affix an implied stain upon the character of Gov Morgan. The latter we know to be false the former seems to be established by the sworn testimony of Tilden himself.—Syracuse Journal

The case is one that every person can understand, and that Mr Tilden, with all his skill in the use and abuse of language, cannot explain away. There they stand, the two statements, signed and sworn to by Samuel J Tilden. The case against him is complete and we see no escape from the conclusion that the great representative of Democratic reform is a perjurer.—Indianapolis Journal

He makes no defense of these charges, but lets them alone, and the humiliating sight is witnessed of a party supporting a man under the watchword of "Reform" who has been indicted for breach of trust, and is now under trial for the same, and who has taken two solemn oaths, one that he only had $7 118 in 1862, and the other that he had $20,000. A nice reformer truly.—Morristown (N J) Republican

Tilden's white "reform" banner, already terribly smutched, promises, long before November, to become as black as the trappings of death. Unless he can satisfactorily explain, and speedily too the damning discrepancy between his sworn revenue returns for 1862 and his subsequent affidavit of counsel fees received in that year, he will stand execrated and abhorred in the sight of every honest man.—Pittsburg (Penn) Commercial

The Democratic Party itself is so utterly destitute of character and principle so indifferent to the reputation of its nominees, in the plain matters of honesty and truth, that it looks with stolid indifference upon the arraignment of its leading candidate on charges which if sustained—and sustained they can be at any time—should drive him from his Governorship and his candidacy degraded and disqualified.—Reading (Penn) Times

Does not the moral sense of the country sicken and revolt at such a spectacle? Is it not an insult to the honest men of the Democratic Party that this scurvy political trickster this confederate of Tweed this dirty-handed railroad wrecker, with his pockets stuffed with embezzled bonds and dishonestly withheld taxes should be pushed forward by the power of his own ill-gotten money as a claimant for the votes of a great people?—Cleveland Leader

One of Tilden's strong points is the reduction of taxes. He does it in his own case by swearing to an income for 1862 of less than eight thousand dollars. Beyond a doubt when Samuel J Tilden swore that he had only an income of $7,118 subject to income tax in 1862, he had one of over $50,000. This is not an entirely novel way of "reducing taxation" but the men who are caught at it are not usually considered "reformers."—Newbury Journal.

It is bad enough for a Presidential candidate to be defendant in a suit which involves a charge of breach of trust, if not of actual embezzlement, the answer to which charges are in effect a confession of the most serious of them or an evasion by means of legal quibbles and technicalities. But the case is made infinitely worse when the same candidate is charged with defrauding the Government as well as his citizens, and with covering up his rascalities with deliberate perjuries.—Cleveland Herald

We are aware that a great many persons, and notably those of the Democratic persuasion, paid this income tax very reluctantly, and swore down their incomes to the lowest figure, but no man did it who is fit for the office of President of the United States. If Tilden made a false return to the United States Assessor for the purpose of avoiding the payment of a paltry tax—and this is the way the thing looks—the act lowers and degrades him in the estimation of every right-minded, honorable man.—Watertown Times.

"The said Tilden" should be promptly brought into court and held responsible for the perjury. If a picayune cigar vender should attempt a fraud of that magnitude he would be made to suffer the penalty of the law whenever discovered and no special leniency should be shown Tilden. Clearly, he is very much out of place in trying to play the role of honesty and reform. For the first time in the history of the Republic a self-convicted perjurer has had the effrontery to put himself forward as the leader of "reform."—Chicago Journal

Is that a creditable showing for one who is nominated as a reformer?" He "reforms" the Government out of its just dues and presents a sworn statement that is afterwards contradicted by himself under oath? Is that the way of a virtuous reformer? How is that for reform? People will think of this and will talk about it, for it has a direct bearing upon the question of Mr Tilden's fitness for Presidential honors. And it clearly illustrates the point so aptly made by Gen Dix, that the professed and boasting reformer needs himself to be reformed.—Troy times.

This willful perjury to gratify a miserly instinct, is bad enough in a private citizen, but who can view with anything but horror the prospect of its perpetrator being intrusted under oath, with the support of the Constitution and the laws, when he is to be put in the Presidential chair, if at all, by the "solid South," who hate the negro, are intent upon depriving him of his vote, on repudiating the debt incurred to preserve the Union, and on robbing the nation's Treasury to pay two billions and a half of spurious rebel war claims.—Norwich (Conn) Bulletin.

The case is simple and direct. It is the wrong of robbing the Government of a part of its just tax through a false oath. It unites the crimes of fraud and perjury. The evidence rests upon the oath of Mr. Tilden himself, and it is impossible to conceive of any adequate answer. Under this awful charge Mr. Tilden remains silent. All of his supporters, except Mr. Ottendorfer, remain silent. They are dazed and dumb-founded by the character of the charge and the directness of the proof. And there is more to come.—Albany Evening Journal

We are getting alarmed about these developments. We are apprehensive that Gov Hendricks, who has just been exposed in log-rolling a bogus mule claim through the departments at Washington, will become ashamed of his associate on the ticket and demand that he be removed. Then there are others who have rights in the premises. Are those noble patriots high-minded gentlemen Wade Hampton of South Carolina, Zeb Vance of North Carolina, Gen Nichols, of Louisiana, and Don Juan Phelps, of Missouri, to say nothing of Ben Hill and the other Confederate candidates for Congress—are they to have their chances of election impared by association with such a man as Tilden.—Milwaukee Sentenel

Gov Tilden has been finally caught in the meshes of his own rascality. The charges of fraud and perjury made against him are apparently undeniable, and the feeble attempts at a denial by his private secretary only serves to impress the public with the truthfulness of the charge. * * From all this evidence, from the evidence of Tilden's oath against the vague indefinite statement of Tilden's private secretary it is as clear as the noonday sun that Samuel J Tilden, the model reformer, the sometimes friend of Tweed the present chum of John Morrissey, either swore to a deliberate lie in his tax return for 1862 or in his answer to the complaint of the St. Louis, Alton and Terre Haute Railroad Company, a few weeks ago. The reader must be the judge as to which affidavit is false.—Newark (N J) Courier

AT HIS OLD TRICKS
[From the Portland Press]

Eben F Pillsbury, who is now travelling about the State making Democratic speeches, among other falsehoods, attests that Mr Tilden was the chief instrument in the overthrow of Tweed. Now it is a well established fact that Mr Tilden "stood aloof" from those who made war upon the ring until the crimes of Tammany were generally acknowledged. At the great meeting held in Cooper Institute Sept 5, 1871, the World regrets that a number of eminent men, among whom was Samuel J Tilden, "stood aloof."

The Kennebec Journal, however goes to Mr Pillsbury's Standard, and under the date of August 1871, several weeks after the Times had made a full exposure by publishing the accounts of the Ring, finds in that organ the following emphatic defense of Tweed:

"The New York Times, which long ago earned the right to the appellation of the disreputable Times' and has quite rightfully had that descriptive term applied to it to this day by certain of its contemporaries, has lately added to its unenviable notoriety by publishing a 'series' OF COARSE GROSSLY FALSE and MALICIOUS CHARGES AGAINST THE MEMBERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC CITY GOVERNMENT OF NEW YORK. The charges are, in brief that the members of the City Government Mayor Hall and Comptroller Connolly in particular have been guilty of STUPENDOUS FRAUDS UPON THE CITY TREASURY amounting in the aggregate to something like eight or ten millions of dollars."

Not satisfied with this denunciation of the New York Times, Mr Pillsbury extols the head chief of the New York thieves as that GREAT LEADER in the Democratic ranks, WILLIAM M TWEED.

About this time, the Maine Farmer contained an editorial denouncing the Tammany Ring frauds. The Standard there upon defended the Tweed Ring and took the Farmer to do in the following vigorous style, the article appearing August 11th, 1871:

"The Maine Farmer, with a zeal that cannot be accounted for in a neutral paper, makes haste to publish a half column article embodying all the MALICIOUS SLANDERS of the N Y Times upon the Democratic City Government of New York. We hardly know whether to characterize the statements of the Farmer in this matter as willfully malicious or give it the more charitable judgment of uttering nonsense upon the subject which it treats. Certain we are that its article is totally false in more than five important instances. Apparently it not only believes the FALSEHOODS of the disappointed Times, burning and rankling under the smarts and stings of wicked schemes thwarted, but it even copies those OUTRAGEOUS SLANDERS and gives them an embellishment well calculated to cast an odious disgrace upon the Democratic party in that city and by implication, upon the Democrats of the whole country."

At the time the Standard thus denounced those who criticised the Tweed Ring the exposure was as full and complete as it is to-day. Nevertheless we find Eben F Pillsbury defending and even extolling William M Tweed. Now he undertakes to make the intelligent people of Maine believe that Mr Tilden had a hand in exposing the Tweed robberies.

THE CANVASS IN MAINE
[From the Boston Journal]

The tidings from Maine are equally gratifying and auspicious. The Democratic managers had undoubtedly built great expectations upon the contest in that State, partly because the Republican majority last year was small, partly because there were symptoms—artfully abetted by Democrats—of Republican disaffection in two Congressional districts, and partly because the Tilden managers fully aware of the immense importance of securing anything favorable to them from the Maine election, were counted upon to supply the sinews of war in abundance and to leave no stone unturned to swell the Democratic vote. Thus far, however they must have found themselves disappointed. The small Republican majority of last year only serves as a good back ground to set off the entirely different results of increased zeal and activity. As to the trouble in the Congressional districts, that in the first district is substantially healed. A few individuals may persist in withdrawing from their brethren who gave the 1470 Republican majority at the last Congressional election, but the good sense and the sober second thought of the majority who at first disapproved of the nomination of Mr. Reed have already brought them squarely into line with the Republican ranks. They see no call to them to become "assistant Democrats" in a crisis like this. Mr Reed is daily making friends in his public canvass of the District, and he will be elected by a handsome majority. There is every reason, also, to believe that a like satisfactory result will be secured through the election of Mr. Powers in the Fourth District.

As to the State in general, the canvass is going on to the entire satisfaction of the Republicans of Maine. The meetings are large and enthusiastic, business, in fact, being generally put aside for the remainder of the campaign in order to attend to the duties of the election. Nor should it be inferred that there is any danger of individual, systematic work being overlooked in the midst of public demonstrations; that is not the style of the Republicans of Maine. They know what is to be done, and they do it. They understand perfectly the grand influence which it is in their power to send throughout the length and breadth of the land by their demonstrations at the polls on the second Monday of September, and they will prove fully equal to the occasion.

The Bath Times says. "C. H. Treat, Esq., has returned from his trip to the east and brings very flattering reports of Republican prospects in the places where he has been. Bucksport, Bluehill, Ellsworth Castine and other towns in that section showed the liveliest enthusiasm for the cause, many Democrats giving assurance of their adhesion to Hayes and Wheeler."

With a competent native teacher the length of time during which study must be continued depends entirely upon the intelligence and application of the pupil.

The Republican State Convention and Nominations

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 30. The Republican State Convention began its work here at 1 30, Hon Jno T. Wait acting as temporary chairman. Ex-Gov. Marshall Jewell was chosen permanent chairman. He spoke at considerable length, touching upon the issues of the campaign, including the financial question, protection of citizens' rights and civil service reform. The convention nominated the following electoral ticket At large, ex-President Theodore D. Woolsey, of Yale College, Hon. Marshall Jewell; by districts 1st, Geo. Maxwell of Vernon, John Allen of Saybook, Geo. D. Moulton of Windham, Donald and Warner of Salisbury The old ticket was renominated with only one dissenting vote, it is for Gov Henry C Robinson of Hartford, Lt-Gov. F. J Kingsbury of Waterbury, Secretary of State, Gen. F A Walker, New Haven, Treasurer J. Olney of Thompson, Comptroller, Eli Curtis of Watertown

The Platform.

First—The Republican party of Connecticut renews its declarations of implicit allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Connecticut and its devotion to the inspirations in which the party was born and by which it carried the nation in triumph through the perils of civil war

Second—The lesson taught by the late rebellion must be honored in the policy and conduct of our Government and indignantly protests against the unblushing avowal by Democratic leaders of the theories of State Sovereignty.

Third—Reformation in civil service and in the administration of all public affairs as set forth in the letter of acceptance of Hon. Rutherford B Hayes, economy and retrenchment in public expenses, speedy resumption of specie payment and prompt fulfillment of the obligations of the Government written upon its paper currency, and protests against the repeal by the Democratic House of Representatives of the resumption clause of the law of 1875

Fourth—Generosity and good will to the people of the South, harmony and peace throughout the land, but protests against rewarding the services of rebellion and treason, and insists upon the protection of every citizen in civil rights

Fifth—Declares its unqualified love of law and liberty, welcome to improvement and progress and seeks the comfort and elevation of the people and preservation of national honor

Sixth—Refers to matters of State policy

Seventh—Charges the Democratic party with subserviency to the men who have but just laid down rebels arms with evasion dishonesty and deception in its treatment of the financial question, with studied insults to Union soldiers, with utter disregard of honor and fair name of the Republic and with purchase of power in this State by bribery and corruption at elections, charges that the Democratic party is true to its record in proposing for Chief Magistrate of a restored Union a man who withheld from friends of that Union his sympathy and support when the nation's existence was in peril, and a model reformer, a man who reached his first political-prominence by associating with most corrupt and unscrupulous politicians who ever disgraced the land, accepts and endorses the platform and principles of the party as established by the Cincinnati Convention and in the nomination of Hayes and Wheeler finds assurance of the elevation to the high places of President and Vice President, men whose lives and records and letters of acceptance furnish guaranty that the principles of the party will be enforced in the administration of our government; President Grant is entitled to our thanks for patriotic services to the country, and his name will be deservedly enrolled among the honored sons of the Republic

HURRAH FOR COMPANY A.

Flag presentation by Mayor Hayford—Collation for the Company—Parade and illumination—"Talbot's contribution"—"Company A, don't ride it —Large crowd in the streets—Going to Augusta.

The jolliest time of the campaign was held last evening. Company A, of the Hayes and Wheeler Battalion formed line in front of City Hall last evening, with the St John's Band of twenty-two pieces at their head There were eighty torches The field and staff officers of the battalion were the guests of the Company.

The column received the command to march a little before eight o'clock, proceeding up Hammond street Cheers were given at the residence of Col E E Small The column wheeled into Fifth street and cheered while passing the residences of Senator and General Hamlin They then turned up Cedar street and halted in front of the residence of Hon. W. B Hayford The Company wheeled into line and when order had been restored Mayor Hayford stepped forward, accompanied by Miss Lulu Pickering, who had a beautiful flag and staff in her hand Mayor Hayford then made the following appropriate remarks

Gentlemen —It gives me much pleasure to meet you here to-night, and although any return I am likely to make for your kindness and attention may be trifling; still I hope that all these little demonstrations may serve to strengthen the bonds of the Republican party and effect the desired end.

You have had many opportunities of late to listen to orators and statesmen and have no time or wish to hear from me.—Consequently I will not detain you with any vain effort to make a speech.

I have before me, in the hands of my charming friend, a flag—the flag of our country, a slight testimonial of my regard for this organization, indicating in a small degree my interest in the company and the cause. And which I now give to your keeping, and do most heartily hope and pray that under its folds you may march on to victory.

With one simple request I close, that three cheers may be given for your future rulers, Hayes and Wheeler and three more for our next Governor, the Hon. Seldon Connor.

The Company then complied with the closing request of the Mayor, and gave hearty Bangor cheers. The flag is about nine feet long and is mounted on a long staff, with a gilded eagle on the summit.

Capt. C. D. Clark then stepped forward and responded in behalf of his company. He felt confident that they would bear it nobly on to victory, and they would respect the stars and stripes not only because it was the flag of our noble country; but also as it was presented to them by their worthy Mayor.

After cheers for the flag and Miss Pickering, the beautiful young lady who presented it, the Company and Band, in response to the cordial invitation of the Mayor, filed into the house and partook of a bountiful collation, which refreshed them very much for the march which followed. A large number of prominent Republican ladies and gentlemen were also the guests of Mr. Hayford, and with their courteous attention the company were made to enjoy themselves exceedingly well.

After this pleasant sojourn the line reformed and proceeded down Pond street to Union, down Union to George, through George to Ohio, where cheers were given for Messrs. Thurston, Butler, Frank Hight, Webb and Wood Thence the march was continued down Union to Maine, down Main to State, (cheers being given while passing under the beautiful Hayes and Wheeler flag on the bridge), up State to Broadway, from Broadway to Somerset, up Somerset to Lime and then to State. Cheers were given with a will while passing the abodes of Gen. J. S. Smith, Capt. C. D. Clark and Quartermaster J. E. M Sanford The residences thus cheered were brightly lighted up.

Upon arriving opposite the house of J F. Snow, Esq , the President of the Hayes and Wheeler Club, a halt was made. Mr Snow then stepped forward and addressed the Guards as follows

Gentlemen —I know that you are friends for you come with that emblem of liberty, of justice and of progress—your country's flag—we all love it, many of you have fought for it, thousands have died for it I know that you not only bear it aloft as an emblem of our country's greatness, but of the principals which you support. It is free, respected and untarnished, worthy to be suspended like the sacred banners of old in our holy edifices and receive the homage which only a few people can pay, that of obeying the laws of the land which it represents. But let me thank you for this compliment, this serenade, this fine music, and as some compensation for your long walk, I propose to present you with a token of my regard—a horse—not Alexander's famed steed, Von Ripper's mare Gunpowder which Irving has made famous, nor Gen Taylor's Whitey, but John Talbot's horse Captain Clark to your care I confide him, for he too will live in song and story but before you return home come in and take a cup of coffee with me and then a pleasant good night

The "token of regard" referred to was a transparency representing Talbot's horse It bears the following inscription on either side

"TALBOT'S CONTRIBUTION."

"COMPANY A DON'T RIDE IT."

Capt Clark accepted the gift with the thanks of the company, who gave three rousing cheers for it

This wonderful beast is supposed to be a true and faithful representation of that horse which is now and will be hereafter a famous steed in the history of our State

Mr Snow, owing to the lack of room, was not able to invite the gentlemen in, but he did pass around excellent coffee, which was highly appreciated by every partaker

The march was again taken up along State street to City Hall Cheers were given while passing the residences of Messrs Joab and Walter Palmer F G Stickney, Mrs Jameson Dr Walton Edwin Clark and Capt Rich Salutes were given while passing the WHIG AND COURIER office, in the window of which were life size lino engravings of our noble candidates, Hayes and Wheeler They are the finest we have yet seen and were made by Wm E Marshall, the distinguished artist A salute was given while passing under the flag on the bridge

Arriving at City Hall rousing cheers were given for the staff, band and drum corps, which by the way is a good one —Sergeant Cutter then called for cheers for the company officers, which were given with a will The company then disband ed, much rejoiced over then excellent evening's entertainment

There was an immense crowd on the streets and the occasion was completely successful The company under the excellent handling of the officers, marched very finely and were the recipients of many compliments.

TROUBLE ON THE E. & N A. RAILWAY

An Injunction Served on the Western Extension.

Business men interested in the E & N. A. Railway were somewhat startled last Tuesday upon hearing the report that an injunction had been served on the Western extension of the E & N A Railway, that afternoon

Upon inquiring it was found to be true and the following are substantially the facts On petition of J Murray Kay, who represents the London holders of the first mortgage bonds of the E & N. A Railway Western extension, the New Brunswick Courts granted an injunction upon the rolling stock of the western extension, so that it is impossible to bring the cars or engines into Maine, but it does not prevent the cars belonging to this end from running through to St John The injunction takes effect on the road from St. John to Vanceboro Messrs J Murray Kay and E R Burpee have been appointed receivers, and will probably take possession of the road to-day

It is substantially a movement on the part of the English bondholders to get possession of that end of the road

There will be no change in the business, and a result will probably be reached without much difficulty

The affair at first created a temporary flurry, but everything is moving on smoothly now

Explanation of the New Arrangement in the Library

BANGOR, Aug. 30th, 1876

Mr Editor —As there has been some expression of surprise and dissatisfaction in view of the recent change in the method of issuing books from the library of the Mechanic Association, it would seem appropriate that a public explanation of the reason of the change should be made.

It is now over two years since the Mercantile Library was transferred to the Mechanic Association. At the time of the transfer, the Mechanic Association, aiming to carry into effect the liberal designs of its founders, entered into an agreement, by the terms of which it became perpetually bound to keep its library open to all citizens of Bangor on equal terms. The library has been, since that time, a public library to all intents and purposes. The rate of subscription has been so small that the amount annually received from that source has not been sufficient to pay half the annual cost of maintaing the library. All citizens have been allowed to use the books in the Library Room, without charge.

The Association is pledged to the continuance of this liberal policy, and, with no disposition to restrict the privileges of its patrons, desires only to adopt such reasonable precautions as are necessary for the protection of its property. At the annual meeting of the Association in January last, a vote was passed instructing the Directors to ascertain the number of books lost since the opening in 1874, and to exclude, in future, from the shelves all persons except the librarians, if the loss should prove to have been large.

In accordance with these instructions the Directors have caused a careful account of the books to be made and it is found that nearly six hundred volumes have been unlawfully taken since January, 1874.

It is plain that the library could not thrive if it should continue to submit to an annual loss of upwards of two hundred volumes at the hands of the unscrupulous and dishonest, in addition to the inevitable loss resulting from the ordinary wear and tear of books in use. No reasonable person, understanding the facts of the case, can fail to see the necessity for the action taken by the Association. The experience of other libraries is similar to our own, and the plan adopted for issuing books is the one employed by public libraries generally throughout the country. It is hoped the patrons of the library of the Mechanic Association will find it, on trial, less inconvenient than they now anticipate.

R D Crocker was called to the chair by Amos Whitney chairman of the Town Committee and B F. Stevens was made Secretary The caucus proceeded at once to ballot, which resulted in the nomination of Dr Samuel W. Johnson, a staunch Republican on the first ballot The caucus was probably the largest primary meeting ever held in town, nearly two hundred being present, and the utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed The old town of Dixmont is fully aroused and on the 11th day of September will give an unusually large Republican majority, and the Doctor I venture to predict, will run ahead of his ticket in the class he will represent.

I noticed in your columns some days since, an account of a flag raising at East Dixmont, claiming it to be the only Republican flag in town. Allow me to disabuse your correspondent's mind if he was deceived, by informing him there are two other national flags in town, one displaying upon its margin in broad letters, the names of Hayes and Wheeler It affords us the most lively pleasure to see the evidence of Republican enthusiasm around us, but the Republicans of Dixmont are not all confined to one particular quarter of the town C

A VOICE FROM ORONO

[For the Whig and Courier]

Monday evening last the Town Hall was largely filled with members of both parties to listen to addresses by Hon John A Kasson, of Iowa, and Hon C. W Slack, of Boston Mr Kasson occupied about one and a half hours in making a very candid, but eloquent presentation of the principles of the Republican party, and contrasted them with the sayings and doings of the other party as illustrated by the acts of its leaders both North and South. His arraignment of Mr Tilden who seems to be attempting to play the role of a reformer without the record or the facts to warrant him in assuming the part, was very scathing and well deserved A large part of the address was devoted to a review of the financial problem, in which he discussed the present "hard times" and the causes of the present depression in business and showed that the causes are the same now as formerly, and that with a return of confidence and to specie payments better times will certainly come The figures show that the loss by reason of official unfaithfulness has been less during and since the war than before, and the correctness of the statements are certified to by the Treasury Department. Very close and undivided attention was given to the speaker who was frequently interrupted by applause. At the close of his remarks Mr. Slack occupied about half an hour in an eloquent and forcible review of both candidates and showed how much more safe it would be for all classes of business men and lovers of their country to unite in electing the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention. The meeting was a decided success and will be productive of much good.

Dear Sir,—It gives me very great pleasure to inform you of the benefit received from the use of PERUVIAN SYRUP in my own family. My wife, for the past ten years, has been in feeble health—very much debilitated generally Last spring she concluded to try a bottle of PERUVIAN SYRUP, and was so well pleased with the result continued its use until three or four bottles had been used, and she is now in better health than at any time for ten years, and has increased in weight from 110 pounds to 126½ I have employed physicians, and used a great variety of patent medicines, to the extent of hundreds of dollars, and I know she received more benefit from the PERUVIAN SYRUP than all the rest together My sales on the Syrup are very large and constantly increasing, and I do not hesitate to recommend and even warrant it to give satisfaction If you desire, you are at liberty to use this communication as you see fit, as it gives me pleasure to recommend so good an article to suffering humanity. Yours truly,

A Lesson Taught by Experience.

Among the many valuable lessons taught by experience, there is not one of greater moment to the invalid portion of the community than the following, viz That alterative treatment is only permanently successful when aided by invigoration — When the functions of the body are disordered, the use of a genial tonic with which corrective properties are combined is the speediest means of regulating them Such a tonic is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most popular, as it is the best article of its class For more than twenty five years it has been used with signal success as a remedy for and preventive of malarial fevers, as a means of imparting strength to the debilitated, and as a curative of dyspepsia biliousness, constipation, kidney troubles and uterine weakness Not only have multitudes of those whom it has cured borne testimony in its behalf, but it has been repeatedly commended by the medical profession and the press

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A M and from 8½ to 9 P M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State across the left end of the envelope, on the face side will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $5.00 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC. SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the stomach and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhoea, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, Nov 18, 1875

H R. STEVENS Esq

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried. I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness. While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness. I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine.

H R STEVENS

Dear Sir This is to certify that I have used your Blood Preparation in my family for several years and I think that for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled, and as a Blood Purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully

To the Honorable the Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

Sylvester C Gatchell, of Plymouth in the County of Penobscot Administrator of the estate of George W Getchell late of said Plymouth deceased, respectfully represents that the amount due from the estate of said deceased for the payment of debts and expenses of administration, as near as can be ascertained is sixteen hundred and fifty dollars that the value of the personal estate of said deceased available to pay the same does not exceed eleven hundred dollars and insufficient to pay the same by the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars and that a sale of some portion of the real estate of said deceased is necessary for the payment of said deficiency.

Wherefore your petitioner prays, inasmuch as by a partial sale of any entire portion of said real estate the residue would be greatly depreciated in value that he may be licensed to sell for the payment of debts and expenses of administration at private sale, the whole of the homestead farm of the said deceased situate in said Plymouth
